Borough Declares Snow Emergency In Effect until 8:00 AM Thursday, March 22, 2018

The National Weather Service has issued a Winter Storm Warning for Gettysburg. Snowfall will be heavy during the afternoon and evening hours Tuesday into Wednesday, March 21, 2018. Storm TOTAL accumulations will range from 6-12 inches with localized higher amounts.

The impacts of this storm are expected to be dangerous travel conditions on snow covered roads with low visibility. Travel on Borough roads is not advised during the height of the storm. Snowfall will be a heavy-wet snow, causing some tree limbs and power lines to fall, creating power outages. Please remain clear of any downed power lines until utility repairs are complete.

2. No vehicles may be parked on a snow emergency route at any time the snow emergency is in effect.

NOTE: Removal of any vehicle along a snow emergency route is required. The Borough reserves the right to tow vehicles along a snow emergency route at the owner's expense. Violators may also be subject to a fine. This action is crucial in order to adequately clear snow from curb to curb.

Residents are encouraged to park vehicles at the Gettysburg Area Recreation Authority (GARA) on Long Lane and in the Racehorse Alley Garage until the snow emergency is lifted.

3. ALL residents and businesses (property owners) along snow emergency routes are responsible for clearing their sidewalks within 12 hours of the end of precipitation. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in a fine.

Residents and property owners are required to clear snow and ice from sidewalks within 24 hours of the end of precipitation along roads not designated as snow emergency routes.

4. Additionally, it is unlawful to place snow/ice in the street. Snow/ice must be cleared to a location other than a street. Gettysburg Police will be prepared to cite violators.

5. Information on the storm and the snow emergency will be updated on the Borough's website. This information can be obtained at www.GettysburgPA.gov.
